

WORLD EARTH DAY

April 22, 2024

"The Earth may be a tiny blue dot in the universe, but for you and me, it's everything."

Over the centuries, we have given the Earth many names to express what it means to us. On this special day, let us come together to celebrate, appreciate and cherish our planet, our home.

Hidden Life of Trees: A Botanical Walk

Join us for a fascinating botanical stroll.
The wild forest on our island, which was carefully preserved while building JOALI BEING, is home to several types of indigenous trees. Learn about their traditional uses as well as the animals and birds that live amongst them.

Okyanus

4:30 pm to 5:30 pm
